

ARCHIVES

It has been rather quiet on the Amica Archive front. There have been no new contributions in several years. There were only three to four requests for old bulletins and these were filled when available. With the work by Terry Smyth in putting the Bulletins on line, the Archivists position is basically the storage of old, now rather useless old bulletins.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Hutchinson, Archivist, Sturgeon, MO